TNC Values and the Neighbourhood Centre Model

TNC members believe that well-being is a social achievement and not exclusively an individual one, and that every community needs a range of supports to flourish, including:

- government policies and programs that ensure equality of opportunity, income security, affordable housing, childcare, employment equity and human rights
- well-funded public education, healthcare and social services
- opportunities for civic engagement, celebration, expression, mutual support and democratic participation
- thriving local and regional economies
- sustainable relationships with the environment

As one part of this fabric, TNC promotes the model of universal access multi-service Neighbourhood Centres, complementing strong public services and organizations supporting specific communities and sectors.

Neighbourhood Centres are dedicated to empowering neighbours to work together to meet local challenges and create shared approaches to building community. They provide a crucial focus and support for community development, and address the needs of their area by integrating services, capacity building and social reform.

Inspired by the tradition of innovation within the Settlement House movement, today's neighbourhood centres take many forms as they generate local solutions to global challenges. Together and separately, TNC members seek to catalyze change by:

- Developing relationships of trust and mutuality among people from different backgrounds and experience, as individuals, families and groups
- Bridging between those who are affected by decisions and those who make them
- Providing open and safer spaces for people to meet, organize, celebrate and participate actively in community life
- Building on people's potential and gifts rather than focusing on their problems
- Releasing the potential of communities as places of creativity and enterprise
- Strengthening the voice of people normally left out or ignored
- Cherishing our independence in order to remain flexible and responsive to opportunity
- Pioneering innovative approaches and solutions to neighbourhood issues
- Investing and reinvesting in community assets to build local sustainability

TNC members contribute to a world in which the "international community" is shaped by people working together from their local communities, a power and legitimacy from the base of society.

TNC Strategies

To advance its vision the TNC:

- Identifies and speaks out on common issues and concerns in our communities as an association and in cooperation with other community groups;
- Promotes the model of universal access multi-service Neighbourhood Centres as a core component of healthy communities (complementing strong public services and a well-supported network of organizations and services targeted to diverse communities and sectors);
- Encourages the development of Neighbourhood Centres in underserved communities across Toronto;
- Links Neighbourhood Centres across Toronto, serving as a medium for the exchange of information and ideas, and sharing organizational resources and capacities;
- Sponsors inter-agency projects with member agencies and other organizations;
- Promotes best practices for community-based social service, health and recreation activities.

TNC is a registered charitable organization and a member of the Canadian Association of Neighbourhood Services (CANS) and the International Federation of Settlements and Neighbourhood Centres (IFS).

TNC 2021-2022 Highlights

(visit neighbourhoodcentres.ca to learn more)

Anchoring Anti-Oppression Relationships in Our Work

BIPOC Leadership Energies (BLE) (Trillium supported)

TNC's BIPOC (Black, Indigenous and People of Color) Leadership Energies (BLE) is a new collaboration bringing together aspiring, emerging and established racialized leaders from member organizations to explore alternative, non-traditional understandings and models of leadership. Together they will design a peer networking, mentoring and coaching strategy that can expand their pathways to leadership and sustain their contribution to the organizations and communities they support.

Disability Justice (Maytree supported)

We are working to better centre our strategies and work around disability justice, from HR to Community Engagement to Programs/Services, and also build our capacity to inform and advocate for policy alongside community partners in the disability justice movement. This exploratory and learning stage will lay the groundwork we need to support cultural shifts within our organizations, for staff as well as community members, to strengthen our capacity to be effective allies.

Indigenous Relationship Audit Tool (Maytree supported)

TNC is supporting member agencies to build skills, capacity, knowledge, attitudes, and values regarding their relationships and work with Indigenous communities and peoples. This work is about collective action on education, awareness and unlearning from an organizational perspective so that we can release historical and colonial conditioning and transform our approach individually and collectively toward greater understanding and respect for Indigenous inclusivity. The work will generate an "Indigenous Relationship Audit Tool" for organizations to assess and plan for strengthening their capacities for being in good relations with Indigenous organizations, groups and community members.

Racial Justice & Decent Work (Atkinson supported)

TNC, in partnership with Ontario Nonprofit Network, Ontario Federation of Indigenous Friendship Centres and CEE- Centre for Entrepreneurship of Youth Black Professionals, is supporting the fourth phase of our Decent Work initiative focused on Decent Work & Racial Justice. This work includes strategies to inform Decent Work practices provincially, for BIPOC workers, organizations and communities.

Enhancing Inter-Agency Solidarity, Innovation & Action

Through the convening and continued support for our TNC inter-agency affinity groups, TNC has activated a broad effort to connect more and more staff from across our member-agencies in ways that amplify our shared insights and capacity for collective actions. Building upon our affinity groups foundation, TNC continued to mount a range of shared TNC training opportunities - including workshops to continue our learning about: "Calling white people in" strategies for deepening white staff's engagement in anti-oppression work; 'Earning the Rainbow' training series to enhance leadership capacity to build safer and more inclusive environments for staff and community members, with accountability processes in place; moving beyond voting and deputations to explore people-centred civic engagement approaches to policy design and policy advocacy efforts; continuing 'Agencies as Allies' learning series to develop our sector's capacity to better support grassroots leadership and organizing emerging from mutual aid networks across the city.

TNC continued its active support and engagement in the Toronto Nonprofit Network, the City/United way Community Coordination Plan, and Toronto's "For Public Benefit" table as strategies to strengthen our sector's capacity for co-planning, advocacy and problem-solving at a system level. Specific focus areas included championing alternatives to police responses for community crises; building systems to support people experiencing homelessness that are informed by a right-based and harm-reduction approach to services, and; promoting the need for Toronto to develop a spatial justice strategy to address the displacement of nonprofit community programs and organizations in our communities.

Building More Equitable & Inclusive Economies

In 2022 despite ongoing challenges presented by the pandemic related to CRA rules and volunteer losses, our five Toronto Neighbourhood Centres Tax Programs supported by United Way of Greater Toronto helped 1,893 participants to receive $5.5 million in tax rebates and entitlements - or about $2,900 per household. The influx of these funds are critical to both family economic wellbeing, and local economic vitality.

After a two-year COVID hiatus, TNC began year two of its "Neighbourhood Assets" project, supported by the Metcalf Foundation, to explore ways in which community agencies can more actively leverage their investments and assets to build more inclusive local economies. Promising emerging strategies include popularizing technical and financing strategies that are needed to better support social purpose real estate, and exploring the investment in a TNC-designed local community loan fund for community members.
